

Newsmakers

O'Neil

Kerry D. Hatch of Rye was appointed president of QSP Inc., the schools and youth fundraising division of The Reader's Digest Association Inc., Pleasantville, a global publisher and direct marketer of books, magazines, music collections and video. Most recently, Hatch was president, St. Regis and The Luxury Collection for Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide Inc., White Plains. Before that, she was president and chief executive officer of Goodtimes Entertainment, a business owned by Quadrangle Group Partners. From 1982 to 2004, Hatch worked at American Express, culminating as president of The Small Business Network. Hatch holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from the University of Colorado and a Master of Business Administration degree from Columbia University.

Ardan

Sean O'Neil of Pelham joined One to One Leadership, Pelham, a management consulting firm, as a principal. Most recently, O'Neil was an associate in the New York City office of the law firm Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher L.L.P. Prior to that, he was a psychotherapist at Children's Hospital, Boston. O'Neil holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from the College of the Holy Cross, a Master of Social Work degree from Boston College and both a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree and a Master of Business Administration degree from Duke University.

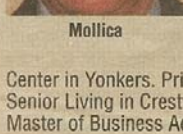

Nadel

Roger Ardan of Tarrytown was appointed vice president and group head of the professional and financial services group at Gibbs & Soell Inc., New York City, a public relations agency. Since 1999, Ardan was senior vice president and head of the legal and professional services practices at Edelman, New York City. He joined Edelman in 1996 as a vice president. Ardan holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from Marist College and a Master of Business Administration degree in marketing from Long Island University.

Mollica

Wendy R. Nadel of Bedford was appointed executive director of the Yonkers Partners in Education, Yonkers, a public-private partnership between Yonkers public school educators and members of the business community designed to ensure an equal opportunity, quality education for the children of Yonkers. Since 1996, Nadel was principal of Creative Vision, a not for profit consulting firm specializing in program development that she co-founded in 1996. From 1986 to 1996, she was director of national youth programs at the March of Dimes, White Plains. Nadel holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and religion from Emory University and a Master of Education degree from Columbia University.

Mollica

Carmine Mollica of Yonkers was appointed a sales counselor at Classic Residence by Hyatt in Yonkers, a senior living community. Most recently, Mollica was director of marketing at Regency Extended Care Center in Yonkers. Prior to that, he was Mollica was director of community relations at Sunrise Senior Living in Crestwood. Mollica holds both a Bachelor of Science degree in physics and a Master of Business Administration degree in international marketing from Adelphi University.

New York Medical College, Valhalla, announced the appointment of the following individuals to its board of trustees: Henry J. Amoroso of New York City, president and chief executive

Amoroso

Giuffrida

Maher

Israel

Kingston Regional Senior Living
Cornwall, Mass. Property: 100 Lake Katonah Road, New Paltz, N.Y. Filed Oct. 31.

Storm King Golf Club Inc., Cornwall, N.Y. as owner. Lender: North Jersey Community Bank, Englewood Cliffs, N.J. Property: in Cornwall. Amount: $1.3 million. Filed Nov. 8.

Totsproperty L.L.C. as owner. Lender: Westchester Bank, Montgomery, N.Y. Property: in Montgomery. Amount: $1.3 million. Filed Nov. 2.

37